Chief Naulty informed the community that the suspect that started the fire at the cliff side off of Chief Naulty spoke briefly about the future plans on reintroducing local availability of evidentiary examinations for victims of sexual assault at the local hospital.

Committee Member Norvell mentioned that he was in a meeting earlier in the day along with Chief Naulty with Camille Schraeder from RQMS looking at potential facilities that could be used as a mental crisis respite. The other topic discussed during the meeting was on getting a social worker stationed at the Police Department.

Public Works Director John Smith closed the meeting by mentioning that he will follow up with Mr. Krebs regarding the private alley.
