Our Mission

Flockworks programs spark creativity and curiosity to build resilience in our communities

We champion inclusive experiences, empowering youth, educators, and artists to explore and express their unique perspectives.

We're a local 501(c)(3)
nonprofit providing artful education to the Fort Bragg community, founded in 2006
by Janet Self.

19 years of Creative Engagement

Recent Milestones

2018

Art@Schools program launched at Dana Gray and Redwood School.

2023

Flockworks assumed management of after-school programs for FBUSD.

2025

Cobalt Gallery and Camp Flockworks Launched

2020

Amid COVID-19, Flockworks provided at-home art support and virtual classroom engagement.

2024

Hired our first full-time Executive Director

Founded by artist Janet Self, Flockworks has grown from two staff members to over sixty-five and now offers enrichment programs to hundreds of youth each year.

School Programs

Provides a safe, enriching environment for students.

Engages in collaboration with school leadership, teachers, and families.

Offers homework help and enrichment opportunities

Kudos for Kids

Provides academic support and engaging after school activities, in a safe environment for kids in grades TK-8th. Over 350 students!

Assets

Provides homework assistance and enrichment for all high school students - nearly half of which use the support each year.

Staffing

Our after school programs are funded through state and federal grants, in partnership with FBUSD.

This has allowed us offer competitive wages, benefits, and professional development training for our employees.
