COMMENTS (ONLY IF YOU DO NOT PLAN TO SPEAK):

Regarding Matt Drewno's presentation... This is a climate aware effort. Our community is good soil for an effort such as this. I encourage the Fort Bragg City Council to support these hopeful farmers.

NAME: Jesse Grover

COMMENTS (ONLY IF YOU DO NOT PLAN TO SPEAK): I write in support of the community garden initiative. This program is a step in the right direction towards a more resilient, self-sufficient community. I believe Fort Bragg could be an exemplary model for this initiative and an inspiration for ~~other~~ other communities to take action.

NAME: Danielle Dixon

COMMENTS (ONLY IF YOU DO NOT PLAN TO SPEAK): I support the garden initiative resolution because not only is the community development important, but I believe that efforts towards self-reliance and garden production will improve both the health of the people in the community and the environment.

NAME: Hannah

COMMENTS (ONLY IF YOU DO NOT PLAN TO SPEAK): I support the resolution of making Fort Bragg the first garden friendly community in the world because community gardens have so many positive effects and can truly unite a community together. I am from out of state, and my city has a community garden that has been established, and it is wonderful to see ~~see~~ everyone coming together to share their culture and their knowledge from diverse backgrounds and passion of gardening and nature.
