Re: Receive Report and Consider Directing City Manager to Issue a Refund of $1,000 Appeal Fee to Gabriel Quinn Maroney Regarding Appeal of Coastal Development Permit 11-12/17 (CDP 11-12/17) - Demolition of Dry Shed 4

Please issue a refund of the $1,000 appeal fee to Gabriel Quinn Maroney Regarding Appeal of Coastal Development Permit 11-12/17 (CDP 11-12/17) - Demolition of Dry Shed 4.

Gabriel Quinn Maroney spent a lot of time doing serious historical research while not getting clear advise by city staff about his options to appeal the city's decision to demolish this structure in the historical district of Fort Bragg.

As it turned out he had to also appeal the city's decision to the Coastal Commission and it was a series of events & timing of these including the support he received from various people that lead to the building being protected from demolition.

Thank you Gabriel Quinn Maroney.

Sincerely, Annemarie Weibel

Hello June,

I meant to submit this tonight when I was at the way crowded meeting. Wonderfully hectic . . . I forgot. This can be read aloud if that is appropriate. I support the refund of Gabriel's $1000.00. His appeal was supported by many many folks, but he was the person who took the time, wrote his eloquent appeal and then ponied up the significant fee. Fees of this magnitude are a detriment to democracy, but Gabriel would not be deterred.

Our community owes him thanks and a refund.

Yours,

George Reinhardt
