Adopt City Council Resolution Appointing Representatives to Represent and Vote on Behalf of the City of Fort Bragg at the League of California Cities Annual Conference

The City of Fort Bragg is an active member of the Redwood Empire Division of the League of California Cities. The Division's bylaws state that representatives of each member city shall cast one vote by city. Meg Desmond, the League's Legislative & Policy Development Specialist, has requested that each city designate by resolution its representatives to the Annual Business Meeting set for September 13-15, 2017 in Sacramento, California. On January 9, 2017, the City Council adopted Resolution 3971-2017 appointing Mayor Peters as the Division Business Meeting and Legislative Committee Primary Voting Delegate and Vice Mayor Lee as the Alternate. The attached resolution reflects appointment of Mayor Peters as the City's Voting Delegate and Vice Mayor Lee as the City's Alternate Voting Delegate at the annual conference.
